Los Manantiales—(Plano A)

LOTE No. 1—Una suerte de estancia o sean 1/2 leguas con frente al Naposta Grande arroyo de agua cristalina, permanente y dulce; linda por el N. Este con D. Nisto Laspiur, por el Sud, Oeste y Nor Oeste con Jorge Claraz; tiene una poblacion construida de piedra y barro con techo de fierro de 4 reales por vara cocina con techo de paja y un corral de piedra para ovejas, grande y bien situado.

LOTE No. 2—Se compone de 4 1/2 leguas mas o menos sobre el Naposta y linda por el N. O. con los Sra C Heusser Arce y Chantini; por el N. Este con el lote num. 3, y por el S. Oste con Cuquet, Bajo Hondo y el Estado. Tiene en el Centro del campo, la Laguna de Manantiales y el arroyito del mismo nombre: las poblaciones son: sobre el Naposta grande uno de dos piezas de material y un pequeño galpon de lo mismo; otro de dos piezas, uno de adobe crudo y la otra de piedra con un gran corral de piedra para ovejas.

La poblacion de los Manantiales se compone de tres grandes piezas de material de adobe crudo con techo de tabla y fierro; mas dos puestos construidos con los mismos materiales que estos ultimos.

LOTE No. 3°—Lindero con el anterior y se compone de 3 leguas aproximadamente con frente tambien al Naposta y fondo hasta el Bajo Hondo; tiene tambien una laguna 'Los Salados', una poblacion sobre el arroyo de una pieza de piedra como las anteriores y dos poblaciones de adobe crudo con techo de fierro

El total de estos campos, conocidos por los Manantiales dista dos leguas y diez cuadras desde el Esquinero Oeste a la plaza del pueblo de Bahia Blanca y su superficie total segun la reciente mensura practicada por el agrimensor D. Federico Gomez Molina, se compone de 8 leguas cuad. mas 538 cua. cs.

La calidad de la tierra es en todas partes vegetal, arenosa, hasta una profundidad que varia entre media y tres cuartas, pero se nota de una manera bien clara la fecundidad de ella, en los parages donde ha sido removida ha brotado subitamente y en abundancia el trevol de carretilla y el alfilerillo, ambos pastos tiernos y dulces.

Aguadas—Tiene el Naposta Grande, las Lagunas, Los Manantiales y Saladas y el arroyito Los Manantiales.

Adamas, se encuentra el agua a diversa profundidad en este campo a consecuencia de los accidentes del terreno y que varia desde 1 hasta 13 metros de profundidad.

Pastos—Los pastos son mezclados, encontrandose el alfilerillo, trevol de carretilla, cola de zorro, pasto duro, flechilla, vinagrillo, té pampa, cebadilla y macadieu, predominando en un 80 c/o el trevol, alfilerillo, pasto duro y cola de zorro.

Este campo es apropiado para hacienda lanar y vacuna, indistintamente, la cual se encuentra en tal estado de gordura que no necesita trabajo encontrar animales que sirvan para consumo.

Telegrams from Bucharest say that relations with Vienna are again as cordial as ever. Difficulties about Danube definitely settled by mutual concessions.

THE CLOSE OF THE YEAR.

A year in history is of course but a mere speck, but a year in the life of a young country full of energy, vitality and hope, is more than a lustrum with the ancients. Time's dial marks to-day the close of one of the most remarkable, most prosperous and most eventful of years. We pause as the ceaseless shadow completes its circle. Every month, every day in the cycle, affords subject for deep reflection, and if none of us are the same as when the year began, let us at least hope that the changes that dear old 1881 has marked in our lives and our affairs are for the better.

They say there is nothing certain save the irrevocable past; let us, therefore, instead of consulting oracles and casting horoscopes for the new year, refresh our memory and improve our judgment by a calm retrospect of the period we just close, and from the transition stand-point between the old year and the new, review those political incidents which, after a longer lapse of time, may become dim and indistinct. In another column we give a short schedule of the year's events. It will be in the recollection of all how the year opened with clouds and misgivings about the Chilian Question; this long-pending national dispute was taken up by our new Government with a determination to bring the matter to a close that alarmed many; but the good sense of both nations, aided by the kind offices of a friendly people, extricated the River Plate from a trouble which many of our statesmen dreaded would culminate in war. If in our brief political year's history, we have but this single event to point to, it is enough and coequal in its importance is the improvement of our currency and the resumption of specie payments by the nation. If 1881 entered with cloud, it goes out with the most gorgeous sunset; not a speck on our political horizon; not a calamity blackens a single page in its annals. The year will [illegible] be termed [illegible] close may indeed be the most prosperous in our [illegible]nd realizing to the fullest the term golden which we dared dub it at its opening.

That the country has progressed rapidly during the year none will deny. Trade, commerce, immigration, capital, all show growth and increase, and the very consciousness which we all have of the country's mighty resources instills into us new energy to help in their development; an energy that will rise triumphant over errors, ignorance and corruption, which here as elsewhere check progress. There are probably few other nations in the world where the masses of the people are better employed, better paid, better clothed, and better fed than in this; much of the mischief that so long held the country down is passing away, and the returning confidence of the people in improved political principles and improved public men is apparent in everything. The year's retrospect teaches that the tone of public morals is higher than before; party intrigue has been for the twelve month's abandoned, and General Roca's Government, although offering many points for much criticism, is upon the whole an improvement on the past and thrives, prospers and succeeds because it is founded on the general welfare of the people.

TRIP TO THE RIO NEGRO.

IV.

BAHIA BLANCA.

The troops we brought from Buenos Ayres were landed here, it was about the first time we ever travelled with troops. The soldiers were all well uniformed and with the best of arms. We noticed that amongst the men there were some Britishers; the regiment had been ordered to the frontier owing to the recent scandalous Indian invasion. The luggage the soldiers had was enormous, and about 40 'china' women accompanied the men, many of them with children in their arms. Mr. Elia purchased 400 horses for these troops, we saw them driven into the town; all strong and in good condition; the Government pays him 500 $m/c. per horse, and he buys them from the estancieros for 400, and 450$ m/c. each; the business leaves a fair profit. General Villegas drove us down to a large willow plantation on the bank of the Naposta, where the troops were temporarily encamped. On the way out we passed through a species of 'tolderias' belonging to say 150 families of tame Indians; we drew up at one of the toldos; an old Indian woman, perhaps the fattest woman I ever saw in my life, welcomed us, and presented her three daughters. The family is now Christian, but everything about the 'toldo' seemed to us Pagan save the three Indian girls who are all married, and whose husbands work as peons on the adjoining estancias; we remarked to General Villegas the extremely shining face of one of the girls whose hair reached to her bare feet, and he told us that the Indian women when they prepare for a 'baile' or desire to appear very 'paquete', smear their faces, arms, neck and breast with grease, and this makes them shine like stars in the Pampa. The old Indian woman had the greatest reverence for Villegas, and as for me, she asked me if I would like to go to Nahuel-huapi, and wound up by presenting me with a beautiful ostrich egg. I was afraid to refuse the gift, for fear of giving offence, although at the moment it was a most inconvenient present.

We drove from the Indians wigwam and made for the Quinta of one of the most extraordinary Englishmen to be found in this country. An English gentleman of birth, fortune and education has settled down in Bahia Blanca where he is known as the Cura Ingles, although there is nothing sacerdotal about him, save his long coat; he brought to Bahia Blanca about 2000 £, and bought this Quinta which is a square of land; his name is Rolff, he lives all alone without peon, or family, or servants, he tills the Quinta himself and lives on the sale of fruits and vegetables, he mixes with no one, visits no one, and but once in 2 or 3 years walks up to the town. When we arrived at the Quinta with the General, we found Kincaid and Davison before us; they had bought from Mr Rolff a bottle of his wine, he has a large bodega of wine, made from his own grapes, and has good and constant sale for it. Kincaid, who knows Mr Rolff well, having kept him for 9 months at his house on the Rio Negro, when he first come out, was, of course, quite at home, but we made every effort to converse with this extraordinary countryman. Davison and Villegas did the same, but we all failed. Si y No was all Mr Rolff answered or spoke. We walked through his Quinta, teeming with the choicest fruits, trees and vines. In Buenos Aires there is nothing to equal his cherries, which he sold to us for one paper dollar per dozen. The pears and apples, when in season, he sells at a dollar each, but for a dozen $15, which astonishes the arithmetic of the townspeople. Mr Rolff never buys any meat or other provision than bread, his wants are indeed few. Mr. Rolff is a tall, thin blue-man; his dress consisted of a c[illegible] calico shirt and a pair of calic[illegible] zoncillos, but no chiripa, a p[illegible] long boots, and a small dirt[illegible] cotton handkerchief on his hea[illegible] whole apparel did not represe[illegible]nt.—He looked to me to b[illegible] starved, yet there was a p[illegible] brightness in his deep blue[illegible] Mr. Kincaid says that his h[illegible] stored with books, as he is [illegible] reader; we studied his every m[illegible]ment with intense interest, satisfied that he lives under some terrible cloud or deep sorrow which will carry him to his grave; about 50 years of age, and with nothing to illumine the decline of life save the miserable gratification of a sordid miserly misanthropic passion; the house had a hall in the centre with 2 rooms on either side and a wine cellar with about 30 pipes of wine of his own make beneath; one had a verandah on each side of the house, and under the shade of a large fig tree was a steamboat deck chair with a cushion; here; we imagine, our host after his day's labor in the 'quinta', rested smoking paper cigars (he is an inveterate paper cigar smoker) and reading Horace, or perhaps Shakespeare's timon of Athens. Search the whole world round and two greater human contrasts are not to be found than Mr. Rolff and the awfully fat China in the adjoining quinta, who gave me the ostrich shell egg. It was indeed a relief to bid 'adieu' to our saturnine friend Mr. Rolff, whose life and existence has all the charm of deep mystery. Villegas shared in nothing our curiosity, professing that, as he was an Ingles nothing surprised him; we jumped into the waggon and drove over to see the troops, which were encamped in a willow wood, the day was hot and the hour was about the close of siesta; such a gypsy scene as we witnessed there we shall never forget: Some 40 women had come in the Villarino with the troops, but double that number had come from the town; these women lay stretched in every posture on the grass, some sleeping siesta, others taking 'mate' served by the children; the soldiers were busy cleaning their Remingtons and unloading the carts arriving with their luggage, whilst the officers some were sitting on trunks reading papers and taking mate, others were well mounted and galloping about the wood. It was an exceedingly hot day, but the shade from the tall willows protected both men and women. Could an artist have caught the scene, the picture would be worthy a place in the Academy or Louvre. Returning to town, we were all but upset and lost in the wood, and as there was great talk of Indians [illegible]c,a night in that wood, unless at the encampment, would have been an unpleasant finale to a rather agreeably spent day. In the clear twilight of a delicious summer evening we drove back, arriving at Mr. Elia's at a little after 10 o'clock p.m. just in time for dinner.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent)

December 3rd.

Time was when an English 50 gun frigate was thought sufficient to overawe the south east coast of South America, and when a fat, full-blown British Commodore could, with impunity, call the Admiral of the Buenos Aires fleet 'Mr. Brown.' Now we are learning gradually that the rest of the world progresses as well as ourselves, and Cockney editors are in dismay on learning that the British squadron in the waters of the Plate could be shivered into primæval wooden splinters by the Argentine ironclads, 'neat, handy, little turret ships' and powerful gunboats. The editors call upon the Admiralty to revise their old-fashioned rules with regard to foreign stations. Of course, the whole notion of the Cockney editors is a mistake and a mere repetition of the original error. They forget that the ironclad fleets of young countries are outward signs, if intrinsically bad signs, of civilisation, and that foreign squadrons are not required now in the River Plate for police purposes as in the days of gaucho revolutions. A gunboat to represent a foreign flag is all that is requisite. A better and larger organisation of flying squadrons would be cheaper and more effective than the stupid old method of wearying officers and men by lying for months, as they formerly did for years, at one station.

Where we most want our gunboats is apparently in the Shannon or in the Irish lochs. It is very serious, but one must grin to see the two great political parties in England so thoroughly 'shook' by Mr. Patrick's conduct. The Times cries out every morning—'What is to be done? More outrages. The Coercion Act has failed, the Land Commission is only making more mischief, and we have fifty thousand men in Ireland.' 'Put fifty thousand more,' say the Conservatives. 'No,' says the Times, 'that is no use, we are defeated by passive resistance.' 'Then abolish trial by jury,' say the Conservatives.' 'No use,' says the Times, 'there is no getting evidence, and judges will not con-

ROSARIO

(From our own Correspondent)

December 30th.

Allow me to present to the Standard, and its legion of readers, the compliments of the season. May and they have reason to mark the year 1882 with a white stone as big as the famous aerolite of the Gran Chaco.

The statutes and prospectus of the Western Santa Fe Railway are just published, and are certainly drawn up with great care and talent. This new line, as I have informed you in previous letters, is intended to start from Rosario, and the first section to reach the colony of Candelario, running through a densely populated part of this department.

The concession that Mr. Casado has obtained from the Government is composed of three sections. The first to Candelario, the second to the Iriondo colony, on the frontier line of Cordoba, and the third to Melincue, the extreme southern limit of the province. The company that it is now proposed to form, is for the purpose of completing the first section, a distance of about thirty-five miles or probably forty. The capital to be raised is 750,000 dollars, which it is proposed to raise in the country. I may say that the company is already formed, for a provisional directory is named consisting of the following gentlemen: — Messrs. Thomas Thomas, Jose Otero, Eugenio Perez, Charles W. Blyth and Andres Loizaga. By these statutes this directory is something more than provisional, as it is to last until the line shall be finished.

The shares are of one hundred dollars, and the prospectus is signed by the following persons:—

Thomas Thomas, 100 shares; Jose Otero, 100; E. Perez, 100; R. M. [illegible], 100; J. C. Godeken, 100; S. C. Rodgers, 100; A. Loizaga

quidacion de sociedad estos magnificos campos situados en el Partido de Bahia Blanca, y que podemos reputar sin exageracion alguna los mejores, en cuanto a pastos y aguadas permanentes de aquella localidad; campos poblados hace mas de 24 años.

Los Manantiales—(Plano A)

LOTE No. 1—Una suerte de estancia o sean 3/4 legua con frente al Naposta Grande arroyo de agua cristalina, permanente y dulce; linda por el N. Este con D. Cristo Laspiur, por el Sud, Oeste y Nor Oeste con Jorge Clarac; tiene una poblacion construida de piedra y barro con techo de fierro de 4 reales por vara cocina con techo de paja y un corral de piedra para ovejas, grande y bien situado.

LOTE No. 2—Se compone de 4 1/2 leguas mas o menos sobre el Naposta y linda por el N. O. con los Srs C Heusser Arce y Chantini; por el N. Este con el lote num. 3, y por el S. O ste con Cuquet, Bajo Hondo y el Estado. Tiene en el Centro del campo, la Laguna de Manantiales y el arroyito del mismo nombre: las poblaciones son: sobre el Naposta grande uno de dos piezas de material y un pequeño galpon de lo mismo; otro de dos piezas, uno de adobe crudo y la otra de piedra con un gran corral de piedra para ovejas.

La poblacion de los Manantiales se compone de tres grandes piezas de material de adobe crudo con techo de tabla y fierro; a mas dos puestos construidos con los mismos materiales que estos ultimos.

LOTE No. 3°—Lindero con el anterior y se compone de 3 leguas aproximadamente con frente tambien al Naposta y fondo hasta el Bajo Hondo; tiene tambien una laguna 'Los Saladas', una poblacion sobre el arroyo de una pieza de piedra como las anteriores y dos poblaciones de adobe crudo con techo de fierro

El total de estos campos, conocidos por los Manantiales dista dos leguas y diez cuadras desde el Esquinero Oeste a la plaza del pueblo de Bahia Blanca y su superficie total segun la reciente mensura practicada por el agrimensor D. Federico Gomez Molina, se compone de 8 leguas cuad. mas 538 cua. cs.

La calidad de la tierra es en todas partes vegetal, arenosa. hasta una profundidad que varia entre media y tres cuartas vs. pero se nota de una manera bien clara la fecundidad de ella, en los parages donde ha sido removida ha brotado subitamente y en abundancia el trevol de carretilla y el alfilerillo, ambos pastos tiernos y dulces.

Aguadas—Tiene el Naposta Grande, las Lagunas, Los Manantiales y Saladas y el arroyito Los Manantiales.

Ademas, se encuentra el agua a diversa profundidad en este campo a consecuencia de los accidentes del terreno y que varia desde 1 hasta 13 metros de profundidad.

Pastos—Los pastos son mezclados, encontrandose el alfilerillo, trevol de carretilla, cola de zorro, pasto duro, flechilla, vinagrillo, té pampa, cebadilla y macadieu, predominando en un 80 o/o el trevol, alfilerillo, pasto duro y cola de zorro.

Este campo es apropiado para hacienda lanar y vacuna, indistintamente, la cual se encuentra en tal estado de gordura que se necesita trabajo encontrar animales que sirvan para consumo.

If figures are to be depended on, we find that not only is the Chilian Administration one of the most honest and economical in the world, but that the great mass of the people are much more economical than us, Argentines. We import 22 40 dollars for every inhabitant, while in Chile the importation amounts to only 13.93. We also consume largely of home manufactures, which scarcely exist in Chile. This, of course, indicates more expenditure in this country, but it also indicates a higher degree of progress. It proves that the Argentine people have more wants than the Chilenos, and this is always a sign of advancing civilization. If we are behind the Chilenos in administrative abilities and political morality, our peasantry is far ahead of the Chilian 'guaso,' who if he has his dish of 'porotos hallados' and horn of 'chicha,' has no further ambition in this life.

The Russian colony in Entre Rios will be independent this year of assistance from Government. The maize crop has turned out very well, and there will be a large excess over domestic wants.

The Governor has returned to the capital. We have to thank him for one thing, however; he has made the Municipality rescind their iniquitous tax on cereals entering the town. One man power is sometimes not such a bad government after all!

I am sorry to say that notwithstanding the cheering words, between two glasses of champagne, about the Provincial Bank returning to specie payment, the paper money has declined in value since the banquet.

Mr. Robert Rodgers, of the London and River Plate Bank in Rosario, was accompanied on board by his many friends to bid him goodbye and wish him a jolly voyage to England.

Dr. Centeno, who is now in Paris, has mooted the idea of opening there a permanent exhibition of Argentine products.

A local clockmaker has volunteered to place clocks in the towers of the Exhibitions, of a new pattern which he says will attract immense attention.

The country had better be careful of its locomotives, as it is said that the English French and Belgian workshops have ordered enough to keep them going till the end of 1886. The Tucuman Railway engines cannot hold for one quarter of the time, but we have the United States to fall back on.

Although the last day of the year and the closing day of 'vencimientos' business to-day on the Bolsa was dull. The gold sales only amounted to 250,000 pats, although the vencimientos amount to 4,613,500 pats; most of same must have been foreclosed during the first days of the month. No time sales were effected to-day, and the prices paid yesterday for end of March and April were not recovered to-day, showing the little faith of the market in the transactions. All the sales in the gold market to-day were done for cash at 25.

In Cedulas we remark a greater inclination for sales on time; the stock in general was weak, and a heavy amount was sold for cash, considering the paucity of transactions of late. Over 153,000 were sold for cash at 99 1/2 and 99 3/4. Some 25,000 were sold for end of March at par. In Series E a slight weakness is noticed, and holders gave slightly way, but not much; a very small sale was done at 85 1/4 and 86. The total sales amounted to 176,800 pats and the vencimientos in Series A represent 1,458,000 pats.

In National Bank Shares there was more animation and more business was done to-day than usual at official hours. The market is exceedingly hard, and prices stiffened. Many closed calculations on the turn expected in the market at afterhours, when the few 'descubierta' sales and liquidation are looked forward to as decisive arguments by the bulls. The cash sales were pretty heavy, over 5,000 shares sold at prices fluctuating between 123 1/2 and 124; but the black board does not reflect the market and several large lots were done privately at 124. Large sums have been lent on the shares to tide over some parties, and the only objectionable feature is that much speculation is carried on with borrowed money. Heavy holders did not enter the market much, and rates maintained their firmness in a very conspicuous manner. About 10,000 shares, we think, were sold to-day, and the vencimientos amount to 89,916 shares.

It is most interesting to compare the vencimientos of this day with those of last year, when the gold speculation absorbed all the attention of the market, and National Bank Shares were yet in their cradle. How times have changed our readers may judge:—

|---|---|---|
| Gold | 11,036,000 | 4,613,500 |
| Cedulas | 2,356,000 | 1,458,000 |
| Nat. Bank Shares | 31,374 | 89,915 |

The rates were—

| | 1880 | 1881 |
|---|---|---|
| Gold | 28.65 | 25.— |
| Cedulas | 86 1/2 | 99 1/2 |
| Nat. Bk. Shares | 74 | 124 |

The difference in the quotations is tremendous, and few, very few indeed, on the 31st Dec., 1880, thought that the National Bank Shares would rise to 124. The market in general presents very changed features, but we think that the speculation in gold in 1880 beats that of the National Bank Snares 1881. This day next year, perhaps, the speculating stock will be the old favorite—the Cedulas.

In National Bonds little was done to-day; some 2 000 sold at 89. The rate is weaker than the last quotation.

Some large business was done to-day in Nat. Government Proveeduria Bills at 8 o/o and 100 days to run.

In exchange little doing, and rates maintained.

In the plazas the activity in wool continues; the sales doing the week have been heavy and in the Once the deposits are so empty that cuadrillas can be danced in same. The South Plaza is empty also, we note a falling off in the arrivals, arising from want of waggons and also owing to the end of the year. Several 'acopiadores' are making a clean sweep of all the light wools in 25 de Mayo, 9 de Julio and Saladillo. It is to be hoped they will not be cornered as last year; the principal buyers of the week in the plazas have been the French 'artistas,' for Havre and also for Antwerp; there is also some stir amongst the Germans, and they have been buying slightly. The week closes firm and very active and prices look upwards. In the barracas there is a large business doing in Entre Rios wools; also in the Once.

It appears that there is a proposal on foot to build a new mole at Martin Garsia; the wharf to be 100 yards long and 6 wide. There are so many projected improvements about Martin Garcia that the place will be no longer recognised. We think that a lazzaretto on the place is of more importance than the proposed fortifications and wharves. Every year there is a hub-bub here about quarantine, and the matter is taken up, duly considered, sent to Committee, and finally shelved. Next month the matter will be brought up again as usual in the newspapers. Quarantine in the R. Plate is as bad as yellow fever.

The following real estate sales were reported yesterday at the escribanias:—

Mr E Picker has presented to the National Government the statutes of a new meat preserving company, requesting the approbation of same. The great future of the Republic is the term golden which we dared dub it at its opening.

That the country has progressed rapidly during the year none will deny. Trade, commerce, immigration, capital, all show growth and increase, and the very consciousness which we all have of the country's mightyresources instills into us new energy to help in their development; an energy that will rise triumphant over errors, ignorance and corruption, which here as elsewhere check progress. There are probably few other nations in the world where the masses of the people are better employed, better paid, better clothed, and better fed than in this; much of the mischief that so long held the country down is passing away, and the returning confidence of the people in improved political principles and improved public men is apparent in everything. The year's retrospect teaches that the tone of public morals is higher than before; party intrigue has been for the twelve month's abandoned, and General Roca's Government, although offering many points for much criticism, is upon the whole an improvement on the past and thrives, prospers and succeeds because it is founded on the general welfare of the people.

TRIP TO THE RIO NEGRO.

IV.
BAHIA BLANCA.

The troops we brought from Buenos Ayres were landed here, it was about the first time we ever travelled with troops. The soldiers were all well uniformed and with the best of arms. We noticed that amongst the men there were some Britishers; the regiment had been ordered to the frontier owing to the recent scandalous Indian invasion. The luggage the soldiers had was enormous, and about 40 'china' women accompanied the men, many of them with children in their arms. Mr. Elia purchased 400 horses for these troops, we saw them driven into the town; all strong and in good condition; the Government pays him 500 $m/c. per horse, and he buys them from the estancieros for 400, and 450$ m/c. each; the business leaves a fair profit. General Villegas drove us down to a large willow plantation on the bank of the Naposta, where the troops were temporarily encamped. On the way out we passed through a species of 'tolderias' belonging to say 150 families of tame Indians; we drew up at one of the toldos; an old Indian woman, perhaps the fattest woman I ever saw, [illegible]s are reaching us in comed us, and which leaves us with the daughters, The fa[illegible] tian, but ever[illegible] 'toldo' seemed [illegible] the three In[illegible] marrie[illegible] as p[illegible]

Of the new clip we have still seen too little to be able to give an opinion as to its merits.

Public sales in London opened on the 22nd ultimo and have since progressed in the presence of a large number of buyers who operate with fair animation. Thus far the greater part of the quantity brought forward has been taken for English consumption whereas continental buyers prove themselves more cautious. Prices rule from 1d to 1d above those current at the close of the preceding series.

In Havre Public auctions opened yesterday amidst good animation. There have been so far offered 3934 Bales whereof 2616 Bales sold at an advance of about 5 centimes on the Sept. sales.

Sheepskins—
Have been in good demand and full prices have been allowed, Srles 163 Bales, reducing our Stock to a few Bales only.

At the Public sales held yesterday in Bordeaux of 1266 Bales offered 547 have been sold at prices showing in some instances an advance of 5 centimes on September rates.

Hides—
The demand has continued moderate and the business transacted confined to the immediate wants of buyers. Still a somewhat steadier tone has prevailed since our last issue.

As regards prices we have no change to report and the only transaction of moment which has taken place on spot is the following:—

Argos, 3,000 Uruguay cows 51/100 lbs discharging at fr. 724.

At the Public sales held to day there were in all offered 12,200 and sold 3,349 hides. Competition was slack and prices fr. 1.—to fr. 3.—under valuations.

The coming off of this event will scarcely exert any influence on the position of the market.

Sales on the English market:—
All the heavies out of 5,900 Villa Celon ox hides 65 lbs and 3,217 Galeguaychu ox hides 63 lbs, per Kronprinz von Preussen, at 6 1/4d.
Albertha, 7,020 Gnaviyu ox hides 71 lbs at 7 1/16d.
Sweet Home, from Rio Grande, Leivas shipment, 2,732 ox hides 58 lbs, 1,089 ox hides 55 1/2 lbs, and 2,638 ox hides 50 1/2 lbs, on private terms.

Tallow—
We have nothing of interest to report. Our market is but very poorly supplied and demand is nil. We quote beef fr. 98.—to fr. 99.—, mutton fr. 97.—to fr. 98.—nominal. Sales nil. Stock only 10 Pipes beef.

Mr. Rolfi is a tall, thin blue-man; his dress consisted of a c[illegible] calico shirt and a pair of calic[illegible] zoncillos, but no chiripa, a p[illegible] long boots, and a small dirty cotton handkerchief on his hea[illegible] whole apparel did not represe[illegible]nt.—He looked to me to b[illegible] starved, yet there was a p[illegible] brightness in his deep blue[illegible] Mr. Kincaid says that his h[illegible] stored with books, as he is a reader; we studied his every m[illegible] ment with intense interest, satisfied that he lives under some terrible cloud or deep sorrow which will carry him to his grave; about 50 years of age, and with nothing to illumine the decline of life save the miserable gratification of a sordid miserly misanthropic passion; the house had a hall in the centre with 2 rooms on either side and a wine cellar with about 30 pipes of wine of his own make beneath; one had a verandah on each side of the house, and under the shade of a large fig tree was a steamboat deck chair with a cushion; here; we imagine, our host after his day's labor in the 'quinta', rested smoking paper cigars (he is an inveterate paper cigar smoker) and reading Horace, or perhaps Shakespeare's timon of Athens. Search the whole world round and two greater human contrasts are not to be found than Mr. Rolff and the awfully fat China in the adjoining quinta, who gave me the ostrich shell egg. It was indeed a relief to bid 'adieu' to our saturnine friend Mr. Rolff, whose life and existence has all the charm of deep mystery. Villegas shared in nothing our curiosity, professing that, as he was an Ingles nothing surprised him; we jumped into the waggon and drove over to see the troops, which were encamped in a willow wood, the day was hot and the hour was about the close of siesta; such a gypsy scene as we witnessed there we shall never forget: Some 40 women had come in the Villarino with the troops, but double that number had come from the town; these women lay stretched in every posture on the grass, some sleeping siesta, others taking mate served by the children; the soldiers were busy cleaning their Remingtons and unloading the carts arriving with their luggage, whilst the officers some were sitting on trunks reading papers and taking mate, others were well mounted and galloping about the wood. It was an exceedingly hot day, but the shade from the tall willows protected both men and women. Could an artist have caught the scene, the picture would be worthy a place in the Academy or Louvre. Returning to town, we were [illegible]s even been lost in the wood.
